

Please, do not consider any attempts to weaken New Jerseys "DO NOT CALL LIST". We are enjoying our unique situation here in NJ where we are peacefully sitting down to dinner with our friends & families without the annoying sales oriented calls that we were so needlessly being pestered with before our state intervened. We once again have our privacy back and we don't want that taken away from us.